

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Could we have a call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Okay. The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 23 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Will you please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return promptly so that we may continue. We're looking for Senator Abboud, Senator Lamb, Senator Schmit, Senator Korshoj. Senator Abboud. We are all here now, and the question is suspension of the rules and a roll call vote has been requested. Please return to your seats so that we can begin. Please return to your seats so we can begin. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 2033 of the Legislative Journal.) 20 ayes, 21 nays, Mr. President, on the suspension.

PRESIDENT: The amendment fails.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have...

PRESIDENT: The call is raised.

CLERK: The next amendment I have is by Senators Lindsay and Ashford.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lindsay, are you going to handle this?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Yes, Mr. President. I believe that...was that the amendment to the Lynch amendment?

CLERK: This is the amendment that is found on page 1911, it talks about school nurse, school counselor.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Okay, thank you. That amendment was originally filed with an amendment to the Lynch amendment by Senator Ashford and myself. After reviewing the amendment and reviewing some of the case law from the Supreme Court, there is one case in particular which cast quite a bit of constitutional doubt upon that provision. For that reason, it would be my
